SOCIAL MEDIA COMMENT POLICY

It is the policy of the St. Lucie County Tax Collectors Office that the following agreement be posted on each social media account established and maintained by the Office. The agreement shall also be posted on www.tcsic.com for easy access:

TERMS OF AGREEMENT

The St. Lucie County Tax Collectors Office utilizes social media to interact with our neighbors about a variety of topics including the services we provide, community outreach and public issues. We encourage public interaction on our social media platforms. To maintain respectful dialogue, please keep in mind the following guidelines:

- Stay focused. All viewpoints are welcome, but comments should remain respectful and relevant to the discussion.
- Be respectful. Personal attacks, profanity, harassment and aggressive behavior are prohibited. Instigating arguments in a disrespectful way is also prohibited.
- Tell the truth. Spreading misleading or false information is prohibited.
- No spam. Repeated posting of identical or very similar content in a counter-productive manner is prohibited. This includes posts aggressively promoting services or products.

We retain the right to determine which comments violate our comment policy. We also reserve the right to hide comments that are found to be in violation of our comment policy. Any comment that is found to be in violation will be hidden from public view, but maintained on the site for records retention purposes. The comment maker will be notified that he/she has violated the Terms of Agreement, specifying any and all terms that were violated.

The views expressed within posted comments do not necessarily reflect those of the St. Lucie County Tax Collectors Office. The comment policy is valid for all discussions on any St. Lucie County Tax Collector managed forum.

Thank you for taking the time to review our comment policy. We encourage your participation in our discussion and look forward to an active exchange of ideas.
